GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY!

Hon. Galusha A. Grow,

OF PENNSYLVANIA,

Will be in Milwaukee and address the people, of this city on Thursday the 18th of October,

At 7 1-2 o'clock in the Evening, on

MARKET SQUARE,

The citizens of the City and County of Milwaukee are invited to be present and listen to the great champion of Free Homes and Free Speech!

There will be a torch-light procession, headed by the Milwaukee Wide-Awakes.

The several Republican Clubs are requested to meet at half past six o'clock in their respective headquarters, in order to join the procession. By order

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

Douglas and Buchanan.

The speech delivered by Mr. DOUGLAS in this city on Saturday last, was mainly in self-defence and self-landation. He handled his Democratic enemies without gloves and gave the following account of his talk with President BUCHANAN about the Lecompton Constitution:

"I told the President that if he would withold his recommendation until the vote was taken on that clause, I would withhold my speech against the measure. He said he must recommend it in his message, and I replied that if he did, I would denounce it the moment his message was read. (Great applause. A voice—we like you for it.) At last the President became somewhat excited upon the subject. (Laughter) And he arose and said to me: "Mr. Douglas, I desire you to remember that no Democrat ever yet differed from an Administration of his own choice without being crushed." ("Ah!" and laughter.) Then he added: "Beware of the fate of Talmadge and Rives." I arose and said: "Mr. President, I wish you to remember that General Jackson is dead, sir." (Tumultuous applause.) From that day to this he and I have been trying the question whether or not General Jackson is dead. (Great laughter and applause.) And one thing is certain—the people of Illinois decided, in 1858, that James Buchanan was not General Jackson. (Renewed laughter and applause.)

This is the DOUGLAS version of the story. We should now like to hear from Mr. BUCHANAN. It is only a few days since the Constitution, the Government organ, plumply contradicted "by authority," a similar story told by Mr. DOUGLAS; and we rather suspect that the conversation, as Mr. BUCHANAN remembers it, is very different from the DOUGLAS report of it.

Ohio Election.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Saturday, says that the majority of Brinkerhoff, the Republican candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio, is less than nine thousand, and that the despatch which has been sent from Cleveland, that he will have eighteen thousand majority, is unqualifiedly false.—News of yesterday.

Is it, indeed? Well, hear what the Cincinnati Gazette, of Monday, says. It gives complete returns from all but seven counties of the State, and adds:

Estimating these seven counties at the same majorities given in 1859, and Brinkerhoff's net majority would be 22,427. The majority on the balance of the State ticket may reach 30,000. This is safe against fusion.

We should think so!

A PROPHECY—THE GAME UP.—A few days ago, the Cleveland (Ohio) Plaindealer made the following prophetic statement:—"That as Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, should go on Tuesday last, so would New York, New Jersey and various other States, and the Presidential election in November. The Plaindealer is one of the most rabid DOUGLAS papers "on top o' the earth," and as such, its opinion assumes considerable interest and importance. So the game is up The States named by the Plaindealer have all gone Republican.

And so will "New York, New Jersey and various other States" go in November. It is no longer a question of results—the only question is as to majorities. Let us make those so decisive that everybody will be satisfied that the PEOPLE HAVE SPOKEN.

WAUKESHA COUNTY REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—The Republicans of Waukesha, at their County Convention, on Saturday last, nominated, with great unanimity, the following ticket:

Sheriff—James Clark.
Register—Henry Shears.
Clerk Court—John Williams.
Clerk Supervisors—John E. Jewett.
Treasurer—O. C. Rathbun.
Attorney—O. C. White.
Surveyor—Ira Blood.

The nominations are excellent ones; will command the united support of the Republicans of Waukesha, and cannot fail of success. The ticket, as a whole, is the best ever offered for the suffrages of the people of our neighboring County.

ASSEMBLY NOMINATION.—Mr. ANDREW E. ELMORE has received the Democratic nomination for the Assembly in the Mukwanago district of Waukesha county. We cannot endorse Mr. ELMORE's politics; but in all other respects he is as good a man as the district could select to represent them at Madison. He has had a good deal of experience in public life; is familiar with the business of legislation; and always pursues an upright, independent course. If a Democrat is to be chosen from that district we know of no man who has stronger claims upon the people, for faithful service, than ANDREW E. ELMORE.

LANCASTER AND BERKS.—Old politicians, who have watched, for years and years, the returns from those two "talismanic" Counties in Pennsylvania, will no doubt take an interest in hearing how they went, at the State election last week. The majorities for Governor, were as follows:

Lancaster..... ..... 5,903 maj. for Curtin.
Berks..... 5,514 " " Foster.

Democratic Berks "paled its ineffectual fires" in the glorious Republican sunshine of Old Lancaster.

GOV. SEWARD'S WESTERN SPEECHES.—WARD, PARSONS & Co., of Albany, have issued in a pamphlet all of Gov. SEWARD's Western Speeches, and offer them at $7 per hundred. They will be read as profitably many years hence as at the present time, and for that reason should be preserved from the destruction which generally overtakes campaign speeches.

PROGRESS OF REPUBLICANISM IN BALTIMORE.—A dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette, from Baltimore says: "Since the Mayoralty election, a great many of the American party have gone over to the Republicans. A large Republican meeting was held here last Thursday night. Lincoln's vote here will exceed that of Douglas."

Appointments by Hon. L. P. Harvey.

Hon. L P Harvey, Secretary of State, will address the people on the political issues of the campaign, at the following times and places. The Republican local committees will see that the necessary notices are given and preparations made:

Monday ..... Oct. 22, Stoughton, Dane county.
Wednesday..... " 24, Whitewater.
Thursday..... " 25, Watertown, (evening.)
Friday ..... " 26, Oshkosh. "
Saturday, ... " 27, Green Bay, "
Monday ..... " 29, to be designated.
Tuesday..... " 30, Manitowoc, (evening.)
Wednesday ..... " 31, Sheboygan. "
Thursday..... Nov. 1, to be designated.
Saturday ..... " 3, Fox Lake.

DEATH OF AN OLD PIONEER OF WISCONSIN.—In the last number of the Bay City Press, published at Green Bay, Brown county, we find the following sketch of the late AUGUSTIN GRIGNON, who died at his residence at Butte des Morts, on the 2d instant, in the 81st year of his age.

"In announcing the decease of Augustin Grignon, we herald the departure of a race of men who have occupied a prominent place in the history of our State. The Historical Society inform us that the Langlades' father and son, were the first white persons who became permanent settlers within the territory now embraced within the limits of Wisconsin. A daughter of Charles Langlade, the son, became the wife of Pierre Grignon, senior, and the mother of nine children, of whom, Augustin, the subject of this notice, was one. He was born in Green Bay, on the 27th of June, 1780, and consequently, was over eighty years of age at the time of his decease. The transfer of the country from Great Britain to the United States, the war of 1812, and the subsequent establishment of Territorial and State governments in the North-west, are all political events of great importance which he has lived to witness. First, a subject of the British Crown—after the occupation of the country by the United States, he became a citizen of five successive Territorial governments, and finally of the State of Wisconsin.

His own recollections of events have been given to the public, in a sketch written some years since, and communicated to the State Historical Society. It furnished an interesting page in our early history, and becomes doubly valuable from the fact that the last surviving witness of the incidents referred to has gone to his long home.

Of the character of the deceased, as a citizen and neighbor, it is unnecessary to speak. Born and reared at a point far removed from civilized society, this constant intercourse with men of polished address and refined education—Porlier, Laws, Franks, Ducharme, Jacobs and others of the early emigrants, gave him opportunity to acquire a refinement of manners and a fund of information which he did not fail to improve.—The habitual profusion of a trader's mode of life, the cordial welcome with which everything was proffered or pressed upon his guest, the polite attentions which ingratiated his visitor, and always made him feel at home, are familiar to the many who enjoyed them in years gone by. It was over the same, polite, intelligent, hospitable and generous gentleman, and though he was without the education of the schools, he was still one of Nature's noblemen, as he was also one of the noblest works of God—"an honest man."

A SENSATION HEADING.—Our Republican cotemporaries in Illinois may be excused for a little exultation over the result in Indiana, Pennsylvania and Ohio. The following head introducing the news is from the Alton Courier. It takes down everything of the sort that has appeared for a long time:

Brightly Breaks the Morning!—Pennsylvania All Right!!!—Ohio All Right!!!—Indiana All Right!!!—The "Curtin" Rises in Glory!!!—Our "Tune" no Longer Shady!—The "Old Keystone" follows the Lead of Vermont and Maine!!!—Indiana Enrolls under the Banner of Freedom!—Ohio true to her Principles!—A'n't you glad you joined the Republicans!—Long Legs vs. Short Legs—Where is the Little Sucker's Mother?—"Not There, Not There, My Child!"—The Faithful Greet Abraham!—The People rise up and Call Him Blessed!—Lincoln and Victory!—March On!!!—March On!!!—"God's ways seem dark, but soon or late they touch the shining hills of day!"

THRILLING ADVENTURE—STRUGGLING WITH A RATTLESNAKE.—A young man named Frederick Smith, employed as teamster upon the farm of Mr. Charles Stomeke, near the town of Bourbon, in Crawford Co., made a most miraculous escape, a few days since, from a horrible death. He was engaged in putting wood upon his wagon, when a rattlesnake, of the largest dimensions, sprang from its hiding place upon the pile of wood, and proceeded to coil its slimy body about his arm. The young man grew deadly sick at its touch and sight, and would probably have given way under the shock, but for the words of encouragement that came just at that critical moment from a companion near by. Smith became instantly inspired with new hopes. Following the suggestion of his companion, he seized the head of the hissing reptile in a manner that prevented it from using its fangs, and held it off firmly from the arm. The description given us of the appearance of the young man at this time, is most thrilling. The death paleness at first observed in his features had disappeared, to give way to flushed cheeks, and wild, determined eye. His hold upon the poisonous monster was that of a giant. Finally, the snake, feeling that it was about getting the worst of the battle, increased the pressure of its folds upon the arm. This change of tactics caused great pain, though it did not induce young Smith to slacken his hold upon the head.—It was the struggle for life, and to have loosened the grasp upon the snake's head would unquestionably have resulted in death. The young man, therefore, held on firmly until his companion came to his rescue, and aided in unfolding the snake from the arm. After being released, a reaction followed the intense excitement under which Smith had labored, causing him to fall with exhaustion. The reptile was soon dispatched, when it was found that he measured four feet and three inches in length, and carried thirty-three rattles.—St. Louis News.

OHIO CONGRESSMEN.—John Carey, Republican, whose election we announced on Saturday, is defeated, we are sorry to hear. The delegation stands 13 Republicans and 8 Democrats, as follows:

1st District, Geo. H. Pendleton.
2d " John A. Gurley.
3d " C. L. Vallandigham.
4th " Wm. Allen.
5th " J. M. Ashley.

AN INCIDENT AT MOUNT VERNON.—Not the least noteworthy and interesting incident of the day at Mount Vernon, says the Washington Constitution, was the planting of an acorn on a little hillock close to the tomb, by Lord Renfrew. "May the seed which he planted in the ground which every American regards as hallowed," adds the Constitution, "rise and grow, and flourish, and be an emblem of his own future prosperity, health and strength, as well as of the permanence of the friendship that exists between his and our people."

THE BRIDGEPORT (Ct.) FARMER says that a man named Videsta, of Bridgewater, killed his two daughters with a hammer, Tuesday morning, and then attempted to kill himself by cutting his throat. The wound was a little too low, however, and he will probably recover. He is said to be in his right mind, and the cause of his killing his children and then endeavoring to commit suicide, is not known.

"FUSION" IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The town of Leroy, in Bradford county, Pa., at the late election gave Curtin 200, and Foster 2 votes. In 1856 Buchanan had one vote, and Fillmore one vote Understanding that in the rest of the State the Bell men and the Democrats had united, these two voters "fused" and went for Foster.

SEWING MACHINES.—SINGER's unrivalled sewing machine seems to sustain its pre-eminence, notwithstanding the number of competitors which daily spring up. We notice in this connection that our friend W. H. SPEAR, the agent for SINGER's machines in this city has improved his rooms in the Newhall building and is now in receipt of a large supply of machines, being better able than ever before to fill orders promptly.

Mr. SPEAR's office is at No. 17 Newhall House; it is elegantly fitted up for the reception of visitors, whom this gentleman is happy to see at all times, and to whom he takes pleasure in explaining the superiority of SINGER's machine over all others.

BASE BALL.—There will be a match game of base ball on the old Fair Grounds, Spring street hill, at 3 o'clock this (Wednesday) afternoon, weather permitting. An omnibus will leave the corner of Main and Wisconsin streets at 10 minutes before three, to convey parties to the ground. Members of the Milwaukee and Excelsior clubs are requested to be on hand punctually at the hour named.

THE Free Democrat says that Marshal LEWIS has painted the windows of the rooms in which BOOTH is confined, denied him the admission of friends, and closed up all the avenues of ventilation. Our friend the Marshal is a very thorough man, oh, very!

CHANGE OF TIME.—The mixed train on the Milwaukee and Chicago railroad for Racine, Racine Junction, and Kenosha, will hereafter leave at 5 o'clock P. M., instead of 6:30 as heretofore.

COLLINGBOURNE has just completed a very superior job of graining at the State Bank. The work is executed in a manner which fully testifies to the painter's skill.

THE PROVINCETOWN Banner says: the whole front of that town presents the appearance of being shingled over with codfish, hung out drying.

REWARD!—LADIES' BREST-PIN LOST.—See advertisement in this morning's SENTINEL. A liberal reward is offered.

INDIAN SUMMER.—"Pleasant weather," is now daily paraphrased into "glorious," "charming," "superb," by the parsons who make salutations. Buggies are in great demand,—such an exquisite time to drive—barring the dust! People who wish to sear the "sear and yellow," or to witness that poetical and annual occurrence, "the falling of the leaf" can be accommodated at five cents a head. Lake breeze and Autumn scenery thrown in.

Take the horse cars and ride to the North Point.

AN EXCELLENT APPOINTMENT.—We are glad to hear that GOV. RANDALL has appointed our old friend, Mr. HENRY WILLIAMS, late of this city, and now of Wauwatosa, one of the Managers of the State Reform School, at Waukesha, in place of Dr. E. MUNK, resigned. This is an appointment eminently "fit to be made." Mr WILLIAMS has the leisure and the ability to fill the post creditably to himself and satisfactorily to the public

THIRD WARD REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.—The Republicans of the Third Ward met in caucus last evening, at Sivyer's Hall, and organized by appointing JOHN FRENCH Chairman, and ROWLAND DAVIS Secretary.—HENRY MIDDLETON was nominated for Assemblyman, and CHARLES SIVYER for Councillor. Several speeches were then attentively listened to, after which the meeting adjourned, to meet again on Thursday evening at 7 1-2 o'clock.

FAREWELL CONCERT TO MR. BALATKA.—The concert last evening at the Academy was attended by a select few. There was not that number out that we had expected. The music was excellent and highly applauded. Mr. BALATKA is about to remove to Chicago. He will take with him the respect and admiration of a large number of our citizens, who have known him as an estimable gentleman and a superior musician.

THE PRESS ON THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE.

THE POPULAR EATING HOUSE, AND the best known one all over the State is Thomson's, of Hartford, on Church, Asylum and Grove Sts. We don't know where a better lunch can be had at a later price than at Thomson's. Here, and Thomson's face, of itself, is worth more to look at, in these gloomy times, than a week's board at an ordinary hotel.—Green Bay Advocate.

☞ We are informed that travelers on the Milwaukee & Minnesota are unanimous in their expressions of satisfaction at Thomson's Coffee House," and well they may be. Thomson is one of those fellows who, to be appreciated must be known, and the best way to know him is to stop and try his victuals. He generally keeps the best, as the North-West will testify.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

HARTFORD COFFEE HOUSE.—People traveling upon the Milwaukee & Minnesota R. R., who neglect to stop at Thomson's Coffee House at Hartford, and get a biscuit, a couple of regular "Shang hai" eggs, a doughnut and piece of pie, lose a great deal before they know it. They are going to lose all these articles. Thomson keeps everything in nice order and is always glad to see his friends.—Portage City Record.

THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE, HARTFORD.—The Milwaukee & Minnesota R. R. Co. have the following: "Just the place for breakfast or dinner when on the route to Milwaukee. We tried it one day last week for dinner, and found it one of the best to give the proprietor a full worth three of it. To tell it in short, the warm biscuit, the fried cakes, the eggs, the pound cake, the butter, the pie, the coffee, and all the other nice things couldn't be beat in this State, or any of the other thirty-two that form this American Union—and all for the trifling sum of twenty five cents."—Daily Wisconsin.

THE HARTFORD COFFEE HOUSE.—We have always noticed that travelers on the Milwaukee & Minnesota railroad are anxious for the train upon which they are riding to arrive at Hartford station. The reason is now plainly evident to us, since we have ascertained that Thomson has a Coffee House there; where that fragrant beverage can be obtained in all its strength, richness and aromatic flavor, together with a thousand delicacies and delicious. Thomson knows well how to do the thing up, and always succeeds in pleasing his customers; hence the reason he enjoys so large a run of custom.—Milwaukee News.

THOMSON'S EATING HOUSE.—At Hartford, on the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R., lives the jolliest, best natured, best looking, best laughing, best fed, best clothed, oldest talking man in the business. His name is Thomson. His dinners are good and well cooked and boiled hen fruits, and doughnuts, and clear coffee, and chickens, and lots of such stuff, to the hungry passenger. And his prices for all a man can eat is fifty two shillings, and he who quibbels not at Thomson's known not how to prolong his life, or to enjoy the luxuries of this world.—La Crosse Union & Democrat.

The Fusionists' Last Hope.

Lincoln's Election Conceded—Congress, if Possible, to be Bought.

The managers of the DOUGLAS, Know-Nothing Fusion Party in New York have finally abandoned all hope of defeating LINCOLN before the people and carrying the Presidential election into the House.—The results of the October elections have satisfied them that their labors in this direction would be in vain. They have accordingly given up the schema, and are now busy with another. This is to secure a majority in Congress hostile to the incoming administration of Mr. LINCOLN. The plot is thus revealed in the New York Herald of Friday—chief "Fusion" organ:

THE ELECTION OF LINCOLN AND POLITICAL COMPLEXION OF THE NEXT CONGRESS—ADVICE TO THE FINANCIERS.—There is no question of a doubt but that the recent election in Pennsylvania settles the Presidential question and places Abraham Lincoln in the Presidential chair. Our New York majority and financiers may as well look this fact fairly and squarely in the face, for no other version can be placed upon the result in the Keystone State. The best thing that they can now do is to look their money upon their vaults and keep it out of the hands of the politicians. The Republicans need no funds or speakers, and their opponents cannot change the result with the fortunes of a Rothschild. The jig is up, gentlemen, look at it as you will.

The only thing now left for the friends of the Constitution and the Union is to look after the Congressional districts, and secure a delegation in the lower House of Congress that will keep the Republican administration within bounds. * * * *

Let all those who have money to spend on elections use it in the Congressional contests, if at all, and follow up the advantage already gained, instead of throwing it away on the Presidential contest, which has been already decided. This is the only practical thing left for the conservative voters.

In other words, the Herald, which has all along been clamorous for liberal contributions from "New York Merchants and financiers," to defeat LINCOLN, now advises them to abandon that job and spend all their money in electing members of Congress hostile to the incoming Republican Administration. The Herald believes in the power of money to corrupt public sentiment. It may judge rightly as to the efficacy of this means in some of the city districts. But the pure atmosphere of the rural districts cannot be so easily tainted. The yeomanry of the country are not for sale. Forewarned of this notable project to paralyze Mr. LINCOLN's Administration, they will be fore-armed against it. Let the Republicans of Wisconsin take heed that no Congressional District in this State is carried against us, either by bribery, or fraud. Let the Badger State send an unbroken Republican Delegation to Washington, to represent her sentiments and interests and to uphold the Administration of ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The Canvass in the Third District.

Our Republican friends are making a gallant effort to redeem the Third District and thus send an unbroken Republican delegation to Washington. The canvass, thus far, has been a most spirited one; and the "signs of the times" all point to a decisive Republican triumph. Senator DOOLITTLE and Mr. H. LINDEMAN, one of our Presidential Electors, who have spent a fortnight in the Third District, passed through our city, yesterday, on their way to Racine, where a grand Republican gathering was to be held, yesterday afternoon and evening. They bring back excellent reports of the progress of the campaign.

At Appleton, at Green Bay, at Manitowoc, at Sheboygan and at other points, they have addressed large assemblages of the People and have found the Republicans, everywhere, up and doing. The glorious tidings from PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO and INDIANA, have given a new impulse and an additional stimulus to the labors of our friends. At Port Washington, Saturday night last, there was a capital meeting, which was addressed by Senator DOOLITTLE, Mr. LINDEMAN and other Republican speakers. Ozaukee county is preparing to give a good account of herself, next month.

At Newburg, Washington County, Monday afternoon and evening, there was another spirited rally. From twelve to fifteen hundred voters were present, nearly one-half Germans. Senator DOOLITTLE and Mr. LINDEMAN spoke in the afternoon, and Mr. BLAIR and Mr. CORDIER, in the evening.—The Republican watch-fires burn brightly in Old Washington. Our friends there are all alive, and hard at work. They already see the bright dawn of a glorious victory, and are pressing on the fight with renewed zeal, and redoubled energies. Courage! Republicans of the Old Third! Three weeks' more of hard WORK, and THE DAY IS YOURS!

EX-SENATOR DICKINSON AGAINST "FUSION."—The New York Tribune of Friday contains the following announcement:

We have the best authority for saying that the Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson openly denounces and repudiates the Dry Goods Fusion, and declares that it will be a gross sacrifice of principle for any National Democrat to vote for the incongrel Electoral ticket concocted by Richmond, Brooks, Henry & Co.

Mr. JAMES T. BRADY, the BRECKINRIDGE candidate for Governor of New York, is also opposed to the DOUGLAS Know-Nothing fusion. The probabilities now are that "Fusion" will be beaten 100,000 votes in November, by the Republicans of the Empire State.

MISSISSIPPI FOR BRECKINRIDGE.—The Jackson Mississippian, of the 6th instant, says:

"The returns for local elections on Monday last, show that the Breckinridge Democracy have swept the State by an unprecedented majority—indicating not less than twenty thousand majority on the first Tuesday of November next. Counties which have heretofore been considered doubtful, such as Rankin, Holmes, Yazoo, &c., &c., have now gone Democratic by large majorities perfectly astounding. In all parts of the State a ground swell is manifesting itself."

It looks as though Mr. DOUGLAS was to fare no better at the South than at the North. So much for his attempt to "ride two horses."

A Chance for Douglas—That Question Decided—The Result Now between Breckinridge and Lincoln.

The chance for Douglas ever to be President has passed away. His stumping this time has been a mere experiment on the public credulity and the public patience. The result has appeared as if it were already announced, and the votes of the next month had been counted. He will not carry an electoral vote except by fusion with other parties, and even then the chances are slim and doubtful. Douglas is then the choice as either could be elected. The recent elections have made out of the question. The recent elections have made it as certain that he cannot carry a State as that the election will be held. Nobody is sanguine enough to expect it. The most "crazy for Douglas" do not pretend, even in boasting, that he has a shoot of a show. This retribution is as righteous as is the certainty that it will fall upon him. He is the reckless and unprincipled wretch who fells beneath its ruins is just and deserved.

There are now in the field virtually but two candidates for the Presidency. Those are Breckinridge and Lincoln. Between them the issue lies.—Madison Argus & Democrat.

The Argus & Democrat is the oldest organ of the party in this State, and speaks for a large section of the Democratic organization. Its view of the pending contest is correct. The choice is between LINCOLN and BRECKINRIDGE. Mr. BELL may carry four or five States; but it daily becomes more and more probable that Mr. DOUGLAS will not recieve a single electoral vote. The most fatal mistake his followers have made in the canvass was their unprincipled fusion with the Know-Nothings in New York, Pennsylvania and some of the Eastern States. That blunder, which exposed at once their weakness and their insincerity, has lost them the supports of thousands and tens of thousand honest democrats, who could not lay off their principles like a garment, and strike hands with those who had always been their most bitter opponents.

This stampede from the DOUGLAS ranks has been especially observable among our adopted fellow-citizens, and more particularly the Germans. They are, by birth and education, favorably inclined to Free Principles and the Republican cause; and they have only been prevented from joining the Republican standard in mass, by the persistent efforts of the Democratic organs and leaders to make them believe that the Republican and Know-Nothings were natural allies and that the former, therefore, must be hostile to their rights and interests. Now, however, that they behold these very same Democrats in full communion and hand in glove with the Know Nothings—training in the same crowd, supporting the same candidates and using the same weapons to defeat the Republicans—they very naturally conclude that it is the Democrats, not the Republicans, who are the natural allies of Know Nothingism, and they are accordingly quitting the Democratic camp, by thousands, to enlist under the FREE FLAG of the Republican party. The tremendous Republican gains in the German counties of Pennsylvania and Indiana are mainly due to this cause.

A Diabolical Attempt to Murder Judge Larrabee.

The SENTINEL denies the truth of a statement which appeared in the Appleton Crescent a few days ago, of an attempt being made to precipitate Judge Larrabee down some thirty feet by removing the planks of a bridge, over which it was supposed he would pass in the night time. From the letter of a private correspondent we give the details below, which we lay before our readers, more in sorrow than in anger, for we heartily wish that the facts were otherwise, or at least that they would admit of a different construction. —Sunset, of yesterday.

The "facts" which the News parades are are substantially the same as those given by the reckless Appleton Crescent, in support of its atrocious libel upon the Republicans of Brown County. The SENTINEL has the best of authority for denying the weak and wicked invention and dencuncing its authors and sndorsers. Here is what the Green Bay Advocate—the most influential and respectable organ of the Democracy in the Third District—says of the accident:

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—It was arranged that Judge Larrabee and party, after the meeting at Wrightstown on Wednesday of last week, should go by carriage to Depere, where an evening meeting was to be held; and Mr. Call was there for that purpose. The late arrival of the boat at Wrightstown, however, made it necessary for the party to remain with her to Depere, and Mr. Call came down alone. The night was dark and stormy, and fortunately he drove slowly and carefully, for he found at one of the high bridges above Depere, a part of the planks had been displaced just enough to have sent the team to the bottom if he had driven upon them.

We have heard it suggested that this might have been done intentionally by some person or persons, to interrupt the passage of the party; but there is probably no ground for such a suspicion. We do not believe there is a man in Brown County of whatever party, mean or devilish enough to do a thing like that. The heavy rain of Wednesday did the mischief.

So much for this "diabolical attempt" to get up a little sympathy, or manufacture political capital for Judge LARRABEE, by a wholesale slander upon the people of Brown County. We believe, with the Advocate, that there is not in the County, a man "mean or devilish enough to do a thing like that," unless it be the graceless scoundrel who originated the infamous falsehood.—Judge LARRABEE's case must be a desperate one in the Third District, if his friends find it necessary to stoop to such contemptible electioneering tricks in his behalf.

What the Know Nothings Expect from "Fusion."

The New York Express, the most proscriptive and intolerant of the Know-Nothing press, thus assures its K. N. readers that all votes for "Fusion" in New York are really votes for BELL:

We Whigs, Americans, know, and feel now, that the Democrats cannot carry either Douglas or Breckinridge—but that both must, and will, compromise upon Bell—if we succeed in defeating Lincoln.

This is the entertainment to which the Know-Nothings invite both wings of the Democracy of New York, and the leaders are doing their best to rope in the "rank and file," and compel their acquiescence in the unprincipled "fusion." But the trick cannot win; already the well-oiled machinery creaks badly; the Germans, in crowds, and the Irish, in daily augmenting squads, are fleeing the "fusion" camp. They will not follow "Dark Lanterns," nor serve under "Know-Nothing" leaders, at the bidding of any set of unprincipled political tricksters.

SHEBOYGAN COUNTY—REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—The Republicans of Sheboygan have nominated the following County ticket:

For Sheriff—Frederick Aude.
For Treasurer—Julius Wolff.
For Register—Wm. H. Cole.
For Clerk of Court—E. Gilman.
For Clerk of County Board—Henry Van Tilborg.
For Dist. Attorney—C. Krez.
For Surveyor—W. H. Paine.
For Coroner—Krueger.

The Evergreen City Times pronounces the ticket to be a good one, and confidently appeals to the Republicans of Sheboygan to give it a united and successful support. We trust that they will do so.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN OF THE NORTH-WEST.—A patriarch has gone to his long home. Judge David Oakes departed this life yesterday morning at half-past 6 o'clock, at the residence of his son, Charles H. Oakes, Esq. He arose in his usual health, and died suddenly without a struggle.

Judge Oakes was born in Hartford, Connecticut, on the 12th of September, 1767, and was consequently in the 94th year of his age at the time of his death. He remembered distinctly the battle of Lexington, and all the incidents of the Revolution. He settled in Michigan Territory in 1819, and consequently may be regarded as one of the oldest settlers of the North-west living at the time of his death. He lived an exemplary life, and died respected by all who knew him, during the almost full century of his sojourn on earth. It is believed he was the oldest member of the Masonic fraternity in the United States.—St. Paul Minnesotian, Oct. 14.

GLORIOUS OLD ALLEGHANY!—THERE SHE STANDS!—The following is the vote for Governor, as officially announced yesterday:

Curtin, Rep.	16,879
Foster, Dem.	9,760
Curtin's majority	6,629

No county in the State, nor in the United States, can equal that.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

GOV. RANDALL'S APPOINTMENTS.—We are authorized to state that Gov. Marquette County Fair.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

WESTFIELD, Marquette Co., Oct. 12, '60.

MR. EDITOR:—Agricultural Fairs are becoming fixed and indispansable institutions of the country. Farmers are learning that "in union there is strength," and "in multitude of counsel much strength." Our County "Fair" has just been held, and in the display of earth's bounties surpass d the most sanguine expectations of the greatest admirers of this region, while it completely astonished those who held the county in bad repute. Ours was not a stock fair, and in this department the exhibition was meagre; but in the show of vegetable products, which best evinces the resources of the soil, it may challenge comparison with any other county in the State. This fact is the more significant in view of the disrepute in which this region has been held on account of its sandy proclivities. But henceforth let the decrying tongue be silenced, for "it it knows not whereof it speaketh."

There was but little stock on the grounds, and that of the most ordinary kind, though it is well known that there is much good stock in the county, considering the circumstances, and brief period of its settlement. But from some cause there seemed little desire of competition in this line, owing, perhaps, to the great comparative superiority of specimens in the vegetable kingdom.

Farmers manifested a commendable pride in presenting the results of their present year's farm labor in mammoth samples of the several families of the vegetable world, and well they might, for such squashes, such pumpkins, such melons, such turnips, and such everything as was there exhibited, would do no discredit to the luxuriant tropics, and which certainly did infinite credit to this much traduced "Indian land."

I wish all the incredulous might have seen, and seeing believed; but were I to give the dimensions, or specific gravity of some of these vegetable prodigies, I might be charged as a reciter of marvels, or a teller of improbable "fish stories;" so I desist till the public mind becomes better prepared to receive the "monster truth." Suffice it to say, we can't be beat! But I am tempted to specify a little, notwithstanding my resolve not to do so. For instance: squashes over 100 lbs. in weight! Who will beat that? Melons from 50 to 60 lbs., and sweet enough to match. Potatoes, a half bushel from a single hill, and few in number at that. Cabbage heads that would make a substantial armful each, &c., &c., ditto. But enough. Who can match 'em? If it can be done, we should like to hear from the favored locality. JENKINS.

From Buffalo County—Temperance in Mondovi.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MONDOVI, Oct. 9th, 1860.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I do not wish to intrude upon your good nature by writing you a long letter, but I wish to tell you much in a few words. Our little village is situated in the northern part of Buffalo County. It is very pleasantly situated, with a beautiful farming country around it. It commenced its growth three years ago and has been steadily growing ever since; it now contains many fine buildings; a well-to-do post office is in operation, where twenty-five Sentinels arrive every Thursday. The people here are nearly all Republicans, temperate, and great lovers of the Sentinel.

We had a temperance meeting here a few days ago, a report of which you will find annexed:

TEMPERANCE MEETING

Pursuant to previous notice the inhabitants of Mondovi, Buffalo Co., Wis, met at the school house on the eve of Oct. 2d, for the purpose of organizing a "Temperance Society." JOHN DARLING being chosen chairman, the meeting proceeded to elect a committee on resolutions. The following named gentlemen were choosen: REV. J. S. ANDERSON, Rev. ISAAC SOUTHWORTH, and THOMAS B. FISHER. The committee presented the following Preamble and Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The use of intoxicating liquors, as a beverage, leads to the disgrace of individuals, and of any place where so used, and the introduction of liquors for sale for any other than medicinal or sacramental purposes, is a temptation to any community, therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That any individual who shall introduce intoxicating liquors into any place for general sale cannot be esteemed a friend to the morals and the best interests of the place.

Resolved, 2d, That we will most earnestly request the Board of Town Supervisors to grant no retail license to sell intoxicating liquors, except for medicinal or sacramental purposes.

Resolved, 3d, That we will resort to law for the support of temperance, so far as it is available for our benefit.

Rev. ISAAC SOUTHWORTH, Rev. J. S. ANDERSON, Rev. B. F. MOREZ and ALEXANDER NEWTON, Esq., addressed the audience in behalf of temperance, and were listened to with much attention and interest. The members then voted to adjourn for four weeks. THOMAS B. FISHER,

In behalf of fifty others.

ESTABLISHED IN 1847.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

I AM NOW SETTLED IN MY NEW store, corner of Wisconsin and Main Streets, (Young's Block) a few doors below the Post Office. I have taken the old stand because I think it preferable for the auction business to any other in the city. Thousands of people pass the corner where I now am, which is no other in the city, for it is well known that every person goes to the Post Office. I call upon all who have any Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Furniture, or in fact, any thing else, whether they want to dispose of at auction, to send it to my auction room. I will use all my energy to dispose of all goods confided to me to the best advantage, and prompt returns will be made. I have been engaged in the auction business in this city for thirteen years, and I flatter myself that I know what is right unto all.

I also contin e my land Agency business. My office is in the rear of my store, entrance on Main St. I will attend to all sales of Real Estate either at public or private sale. I will make exchange of real estate with all who want to exchange. Any who have goods to exchange for good real estate in the city or country, can at once get them. A good trade and some money with it; probably there was never a better time to invest in real estate than the present. Goods are now cheap, and as our city are now, becoming our city are exceedingly low, compared to prices four years ago; but these low prices will not last long, and it is generally believed by all who have lived so long in the West as I have, that next spring will see a sudden rise in real estate throughout this city and country.

This is the time to secure you a good homestead Now is the time to make investments. I call upon all who have property for disposal to leave a list of the same with me. I keep a register expressly for that purpose, which will be exposed to the inspection of all, from day to day. I shall keep myself posted in real estate, from day to day, as I have done for the last ten years, and will be happy to give information to all who may want it.

Physicians in vain came again and again,
The dear little angel grew worse,
"'Tis a fatal disease, and we can't give her ease,"
Said the doctors to mother and nurse.
But the nurse in plain terms told, "'tis nothing but worms,"
And a cure pointed out right away;
BRYAN'S VERMIFUGE mild, then they gave to the child,
And behold! she was well the next day.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.

LET NOT DISEASE, WITH ITS fangs, prey upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an untimely grave. Shake off the feeling of despair and hopelessness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific order of the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, stomach and the vital organs, JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all hurtful poison that there is in it. Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these pills, and disease in any form, will disappear and vanish. As the Sun within its glorious beams first causes the morning dew to rise as mist, then growing stronger casts his burning rays upon it—and behold 'tis gone so cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. There is no blood purifier equal to JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS.

"SIX FEET FOUR!"

A WIDE AWAKE SONG FOR THE THIRD DISTRICT.

[When Judge SLOAN was nominated for Congress, at Elpon, a large crowd of Wide Awakes assembled in front of the hotel where the Judge was stopping, and made the welkin ring with cheers for LINCOLN and SLOAN. After repeated calls for "Six feet four!" the Judge made his appearance upon the balcony, and began by saying:—"Well, my friends, here I am, six feet four,—a little longer than I am broad—something taller than HONEST OLD ABE, but not quite so homely." THOMSON, of the Home League, was standing by, and immediately improvised the following song:]

"SIX FEET FOUR!"

TUNE—OLD ROBIN THE BOW.

Six feet and four inches of timber,
Will do pretty well for the length;
The people don't want any climber,
And know it lacks nothing in strength.
And since the OLD TIMER is the largest
Of any District in the West,
It's proper to send down to Congress
A specimen man and the best.

The people are sick of Small Grants,
And mean to elect them no more,
Believing a man from this District
Should come as near six feet as four!
We'll put honest ABE in the White House,
We'll put honest SCOTT on the floor;
No "cent tall is too near the ground, sir,"
That's worn by Six Feet and Four!

We know he don't hanker for niggers,
But thinks selling men a great sin;
One rub of SLOAN'S excellent ointment
Will unanoint Big Whiskers within;
And if he shall vote for a Speaker,
It'll be for some person of ish,
Though he'll never dishonor his people
By voting for Know-Nothing Smith.

Here's a cheer for the man of the people,
And for these Big Whiskers, a groan;
We'll go to the polls in November,
And vote for Mother-send-Your Sloan!
And we'll bury Elijah forever
Where his fathers have entered before,
Good FARE SON shall cover his carcass,
Our shovel is SIX FEET AND FOUR

THE MYSTERIOUS SKETCH.

FROM THE GERMAN.

[CONCLUDED.]

This adventure had inspired me, and I resumed my work with some prospect of success; but an unaccustomed noise soon interrupted my labors. It was the click of arms and the tramp of men ascending the staircase. A cold chill ran over me. Can I have broken that rascal's neck? and are they coming to seize me? There was a knock at my door, and a rough voice said:

"In the name of the law, open!"

I thought of escaping by the window over the roofs; but a vertigo seized me at a mere glance at the dizzy height. Again the summons came.

"Open, or we will break down the door!"

I turned the key and saw the chief of police.

"I arrest you," he said and made a sign to two men, who seized me by the collar, while the others rummaged my garret.—"March!" was the next order, and I descended the staircase, supported under each arm, like a consumptive in his third stage of illness.

They put me into a hackney coach. I asked what I had done, but they only exchanged significant smiles. Soon a deep shadow enveloped us; the steps of the horses resounded under a vault. We had entered the prison. The jailor shut me up in a cell as tranquilly as if he had been putting a pair of stockings in a drawer, thinking of something else. I looked around my cell. It had been newly whitewashed, and there was nothing upon the walls but a rude sketch of a gibbet, drawn by my predecessor. The light came from an aperture nine or ten feet from the floor, and the furniture consisted of a heap of straw. I sat down upon the straw, with my hands upon my knees, and gave myself up to dispair. I had killed Rapp. He had denounced me before dying. I should be hung as his murderer. I started up, coughing, as if the hempen cravat already pressed my throat.

Again the jailor appeared, and ordered me to follow him. He conducted me through long galleries, to a sombre hall, with the benches arranged in a semi-circle, opposite which, on an elevated seat, were two persons with their faces in shadow; but as one of them turned to his companion, I recognized the aquiline profile of Van Spreckdal. Beneath them, at a low table, was seated a clerk, tickling his ear with the feather of his quill.

"Christian Venius," said Van Spreckdal, "where did you get that sketch?" showing me my nocturnal work, of which they had taken possession at the time of my arrest.

"I am the author of it."

There was a long silence. The clerk took down my answer, and as I listened to the scratching of his pen, I wondered what that had to do with the knife I had given to Rapp.

"You are the author of it?" said Van Spreckdal; "where did you get the subject?"

"It is a fancy sketch."

"You have not copied the details anywhere?"

"No, sir; I have imagined them all."

"And this woman," pursued the Judge, "who is murdered on the edge of the well; have you imagined her, also?"

"Undoubtedly."

"You have never seen her?"

"Never."

Van Spreckdal rose as if indignant; then seating himself, he appeared to consult his colleague in a low voice. Suddenly he said to the jailor:

"Take the prisoner to the carriage. We are going to the Metzerstrasse."

I was placed in a carriage with two policemen. One of them on the way offered a pinch of snuff to his comrade. I extended my fingers meobanically to the box. He drew it quickly back. The blood mounted into my face, and I turned away my head to conceal my emotion.

"If you look out of the windows," said the man of the snuff box, "we shall be obliged to put manacles on you."

When the carriage stopped, one of them alighted while the other held me by the collar; then seeing his comrade ready to receive me, he pushed me out rudely. We entered a narrow alley, with broken, irregular pavement. A yellowish moisture stood on the walls, exhaling a feted odor. I walked in darkness, with two men behind me.—Farther on appeared the light of an interior court.

As I advanced, a feeling of terror took possession of me, like the unnatural horror of a nightmare. I recoiled in st netively.

"Go on!" cried one of the policemen behind me, putting his hand on my shoulder; "march!"

My terror was no longer instinctive when I saw before me the court which I had sketched that night before; its walls garnished with hooks, the wood pile, the ladder, the rabbit hut, the hen coop, &c. Not a sky-light, great or small, high or low, not a cracked window-pane, not a single detail had been omitted. I was thunderstruck at this strange revelation.

Near the well were the two judges. At their feet was the old woman, lying on her back, her long gray hair straggling over her form, her face livid, her eyes unnaturally wide, her tongue between her teeth. It was a horrible spectacle!

"Well," said Van Spreckdal, in a solemn tone, "what have you to say?"

I was silent.

"Do you confess that you threw this woman, Theresa Becker, into this well, after having strangled her, that you might steal her money?"

"No," I cried, "no; I do not know this woman. I have never seen her. May God help me!"

"That is enough," he replied, in a dry voice, and departed with his companions. I was carried back to the prison in a state of profound stupidity. I knew not what to think. My conscience even, began to trouble me. I asked myself if I had not really assassinated the old woman. I passed a wretched night of doubt, bewilderment, despair.

With the dawn some of my black thoughts disappeared. I felt more confidence in myself, and at the same time a desire to see what was going on in the world without. Other prisoners before me had climbed to the narrow aperture. They had dug holes in the wall, that they might mount more easily. I climbed there in my turn, and when, stretching my neck forward, I saw the crowd, the life, the movement, tears flowed abundantly down my cheeks. I thought no longer of suicide. I experienced the strongest desire to live. They might condemn me to the hardest labor, might attach a cannon ball to my leg, if they would only let me live; to live was to be happy.

The old market opposite my window, with its roof like an extinguisher resting on heavy pillars, offered a fine spectacle. The old women, seated by their baskets of vegetables, their cages of poultry and baskets of eggs behind them; the Jews, old clothes dealers, with faces the color of box wood; the butchers, with naked arms, chopping meat at their stalls; the peasants, with large felt hats, planted on the nape of the neck, their hands behind their backs, and smoking tranquilly their pipes; then the noise, the tumult of the crowd, the tones of the voice, the expressive gestures, the unexpected attitudes which betray a dis tance the progress of a dispute, or paint the character of an individual—all this captivated me; and in spite of my sad position, I felt happy to be in the world.

While I was looking on, a man passed, with his back bent, bearing an enormous quarter of beef on his shoulders. His arms were naked, his elbows in the air, and his head inclined on his breast. His floating hair, like that of Salvator's "Steambre," concealed his face; and yet, at the first glance, a thrill ran through my veins.

"It is he," I exclaimed.

The blood rushed to my heart. I descended into my cell. My whole frame trembled.

"It is he!" I stammered with a half-choked voice. "He is there—there—and I—I am about to die to explain his crime.—What shall I do? what shall I do?"

A sudden thought from heaven inspired me. I put my hand into my pocket—my crayons were there. Then, springing to the wall, I began to trace the scene of the murder with almost supernatural energy. No more uncertainties; no more hesitating experiments. I knew the man. I had seen him. I reproduced him before me.

At ten o'clock the jailor appeared in my cell. His owlish stupidity gave place to admiration.

"Is it possible?" he cried standing on the threshold.

"Go seek my judges," I said, pursuing my work with increasing exultation.

"They are waiting for you in the criminal hall," he replied.

"I wish to make some revelation." I continued, putting the last touch to the mysterious personage.

In a few minutes the two judges came.—They looked on stupefied. With one hand extended to the picture, and trembling in every limb, I called out:

"There is the assassin."

Von Spreckdal, after a moment's silence, asked his name.

"I do not know it," I answered; "but he is there now in the market, in the third stall at the left, chopping meat."

"What do you think of it?" said he, turning toward his colleague.

"Let them find the man," replied the other, in a grave tone.

Some of the keepers went out to obey the order. The judges remained standing, looking at the picture. I sank down upon the straw, with my head between my knees, exhausted with excitement.

The noise of steps beneath the resounding arches of the corridor aroused me. The man entered. Van Spreckdal pointed in silence to the picture. He looked at it a moment, turned pale, then with a roar which chilled us with terror, he struck out his enormous arms, and with one bound was out of the door. There was a fearful contest in the corridor. We heard the panting respiration of the butcher, low imprecations, brief words, and the sound of struggling feet. It was over. The man re-entered. His head was bowed; his eyes blood-shot; his hands bound behind his back. He fixed his gaze once more upon the picture, apparently to reflect: then, in a voice, as if speaking to himself, he said:

"Who could have seen me?—at mid night."

I was saved.

Many years have passed since this terrible adventure. I no longer cut profiles or paint portraits of burgomasters. By dint of labor and perseverance, with the blessing of God, I gain an honorable subsistence by such labors as can alone satisfy the aspirations of a true artist. But the remembrance of the nocturnal sketch has never left me. Sometimes, in the midst of my finest efforts, the thought of it returns, and I lay down my palette and dream for hours.

How could a crime, committed by a man I did not know, in a place which I had never seen, be produced under my pencil, even to its smallest details? Was it chance? No! And, besides, what is chance, after all, but the effect of a cause of which we are ignorant.

Schiller was right when he said: "The immortal soul does not share the imperfections of matter; when the body sleeps it unfolds its radiant wings, and wanders, God knows whither." Nature is bolder in her realities than the imagination of man in its wildest fancies.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Republican Demonstration at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Oct 13.

The Republican demonstration to-day, has been by far the grandest political display ever known in this city, fully equalling the demonstration in 1840, and only excelled by that of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable celebration. Large deputations of Wide Awakes arrived on the early trains, and before noon the streets were thronged with strangers. The weather during the forenoon was unpropitious, some rain falling, but by noon it had cleared up and was pleasant throughout the remainder of the day. The procession formed at one o'clock, and after parading the principal streets, assembled at the Arsenal grounds, and were addressed by Carl Schurz, Hon. H. B. Stanton, Hon. Wm. Phelps, of Miss., and other distinguished speakers.

Mr. Seward was expected to be present and speak, but was prevented.

The crowd at the arsenal grounds was variously estimated at from 15,000 to 30,000 people.

The torch-light procession to-night was the great feature of the demonstration.—About five thousand torch bearers were paraded. The buildings of the Commercial Advertiser office and Morning Express office were brilliantly illuminated, as also, were other buildings along the line of march.

Later by the Arabia.

HALIFAX, Oct. 16—9 P. M.

The Arabia arrived at 2 o'clock this morning with 14 Boston passengers.

LONDON, Saturday, 8 P. M.—A letter from Rome says that the Piedmontese lancers galloped close to the gates of Rome in the chase of the Pontifical Gens d'armes.

NAPLES.—Bertani, late Secretary General of the Dictator, writes to contradict the statement that he had given orders to oppose by force the entry of the Piedmontese into the Neapolitan territory. He also states that neither himself nor Garibaldi ever thought of counselling the immediate occupation of Rome at the risk of a conflict with France.

HUNGARY.—In the Synod recently held at Graw, a Cardinal Primate declared that he had no objection to the clergy wearing the national Hungarian costume

PARIS, SATURDAY—The Moniteur says the affairs of Syria have entered on a new phase. Military action will now be exercised by our troops. Some other chiefs had been arrested and tried at Beyrout. The Camakiu of Druses is now among the prisoners. These measures have produced a kind of panic among the Druses in the mountains, and their attitude is more undecided. Measures have been taken for the protection of the French manufactures.

Ancona has capitulated and Lamoriere has surrendered to Admiral Persano. A great victory is reported at Gazerto, where two thousand prisoners were taken. Garibaldi is said to have sent the following telegraph to Genoa: "Heard Quarters, Oct. 1—Victory along the whole line. The Papal troops are being pursued."

The Sardinian Chambers have resolved that King Victor Emanuel be authorized to annex to Sardinia those Provinces of Central and Southern States, in which the population, by direct universal suffrage vote, to become an integral part of the Sardinian Constitutional monarchy.

The Sardinian army has not yet entered the Neapolitan territory, but Garibaldi announces that they soon will do so The head-quarters will be at Agvilla, and Victor Emanuel will command in person.

Messine still holds out.

Garibaldi has made some modifications in his ministry, to meet the views of the Neapolitans.

Bertani Niobmanned, Garibaldi's evil genius, has been dismissed, and a better feeling now existed between Victor Emanuel and Garibaldi. The latter has written to the King requesting him to permit him to return to his Italian home.

A new manifesto declares that no King of Italy should be proclaimed, before the Kingdom of Italy is organized at Rome.

Movements of the Prince.

ALBANY, Oct 16—8 P. M.

The Prince of Wales and suite left Westport at 11 o'clock on board the Daniel Drew, which was handsomely fitted for the occasion. Bulletins announced that the party had left at 7 o'clock, and would be here at half past two. The streets were consequently filled with people, who had to wait till nearly five before the Royal visitors arrived. The Mayor and Council went down the river on the Young America, and were taken on board the Daniel Drew at Sinyvesant. The Mayor made a brief address to Lord Renfrew, who received it in silence, making no reply.

The party arrived here at half past four, when a procession was formed with two regiments of military and some civic societies; the Prince rode in an open baroucha with Mayor Thatcher, Duke of Newcastle and Lord Lyons; the streets, from the landing to Congress Hall, were crowded with people, but no effort was made to press after the carriage, and the most commendable decorum was observed. Loud cheers were given as the carriage passed along, which the Prince acknowledged with quiet dignity and grace. Flags were waving from the Capitol, Delavan House, Congress Hall, public buildings, and a large number of stores and houses on the route were decorated with small flags.

The apartments reserved for the visitors at Congress Hall, are fitted up and cannot fail to satisfy the guests.

This evening the Prince and suite dine with Gov. Morgan, and staff. Among the invited guests is Hon. Wm. H. Seward. The Royal party leave to-morrow at nine o'clock by the Western Railroad for Boston. A special car handsomely furnished, is appropriated to the Royal party for the trip. The Albany Burgess Corps, Capt. Hale Kingsley, parade to-morrow to conduct the Prince to the cars.

Four men under arrest for horse-stealing and confined at Council Bluffs, were taken from the jail last night, and one of them named McGuire, was found suspended from the limb of a tree near the town this morning, quite dead. The others are supposed to have met the same fate, but their bodies have not yet been found. Great excitement prevails.

Douglas at Kalamazoo.

KALAMAZOO, Oct. 16—9 P. M.

Senator Douglas arrived here at noon on a special train from Detroit. He was met at the depot by an immense crowd, and escorted through the principal streets, followed by a procession of over 2,000 persons, two miles in length. An immense arch, entwined with evergreens, was thrown across the street, bearing "Welcome to Douglas" on one side, and "Popular Sovereignty" on the other. The streets are alive with banners, and much enthusiasm everywhere.—25,000 people believed to have been present. Torchlight procession to-night.

The Breckinridge Democrats held their State Convention to day, and made the following nominations:

For Governor, B. W. Jannes, of Strafford; for Railroad Commissioner, Reuben Davis; for Congress, Reb't Morrison, P. R George, and Ezra J. Gedden.

Disappointment.

COLD SPRING, N. Y., Oct. 16—9 P. M.

We learn from West Point that the Cadets had their drawing-room beautifully decorated for the ball last evening, and everything was ready for the occasion, when at the last moment the Baron sent word that he was too tired for it. The ball, was of course, abandoned.

Destructive Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16—9 P. M.

The extensive Coal Oil Works of Helene & Co., in the Twenty-fourth Ward, were destroyed last night by fire. Loss $35,000. Two of the workmen were badly burned.

EXTRAORDINARY SUICIDE.—The son of Mr. Bradbury, of the eminent firm of Bradbury & Evans, of London, printers, and proprietors of Punch and other well-known publications, has recently committed suicide in a remarkable manner. He went to Cremorne Gardens and spent the evening in the amusements of that celebrated place. Towards the close of the entertainment he procured silver for a ten pound note, and going to the front of the dancing platform, scattered it amongst the crowd. He then called for a glass of grog, and having emptied into it a vial of prussic acid, made a speech, proposed the health of the company, drank off his glass, and alas! fell dead in the midst of that scene of wild riot and confusion. He was a young man of great ability and promise, and was very recently presented with a gold watch by the Emperor of the French, in acknowledgement of the value of an improvement he had made in printing.

A SICKLY GIRL in Plymouth, a somnambulist, with a strong propensity to walk off with things and hide them where they could not be found, nor she herself remember, so that at last it was necessary to lock her in securely at night, made off, a few weeks since, with a valuable watch. Then the family gave her liberty and watched her movements in hopes that the somnambulism that carried it off would again find it. The other night she started out, followed by her brother. She walked over places where he dare not follow, but the moonlight helped to show her course and he kept along.—Finally she walked up the trunk of an old tree that hung at an angle of forty-five degrees over a brook, stood firmly at the end while the tree swayed beneath her, and stooping down brought out the watch. Returning to terra firma, the brother awoke her, took the property and hurried home.

REDUCTION IN RENTS AT ST. LOUIS.—The St. Louis Democrat says:

"Quite a movement is making among rents in favor of a reduction of rates in both business houses and residences, corresponding with the unfulfilled state of trade existing. On Second street a reduction of 25 per cent. (from $4,000 down to $3,000 per annum,) has been granted by two or three landlords, and a similar reduction is insisted on by quite a number of other tenants, who will seek houses on the levee and other streets if not granted. Some are paying $6,000 per annum for double stores, who refuse to pay over $4,000 hereafter."

A TRAIN of twenty-eight freight cars loaded entirely with cheese, recently passed over the Connecticut Valley line of railroad, from Vermont to New York. There are 200 tons of the article, and it was all shipped from St. Albans.

"Sare," said a Frenchman, wishing to display his knowledge of the English language "did it rain to-morrow ?" "Yes, sare," was the equally bombastic reply; "yes, sare, it vos."

MONETARY.

TUESDAY P. M., October 14, 1860.

The supply of Eastern Exchange is fair, and the rates steady, selling from the banks at ¾ @ cent premium; buying at ¾@¾ @ cent. Currency continues very scarce.

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.

The Press & Tribune of this morning says:

There was a heavy supply of Eastern Exchange on the market to-day, and this, with rather a short supply of currency, rendered rates somewhat easier. On the street, New York bills were sold at ¾ @ cent premium, and all through the banks did not lower their selling rate from ¾ @ cent., still they sold but little at that figure.

The receipts of wheat to-day were 98,441 bushels. This market opened under pretty much the same circumstances that existed yesterday afternoon, namely: buyers offering only 88@89c for No. 1 spring and sellers holding at 90c, neither parties showing much disposition to yield. On 'Change a more buoyant feeling seemed to prevail, two or three dealers buying freely at 90c for No. 1, and 88c for No. 2, but after the second despatches from New York, they withdrew from the market, and after 'Change no sales could be effected except at a decline of 1@2c. The sales reported were inside of 50,000 bus in the aggregate, at 89@90c for No. 1; 87@88c for No. 2; 92c for Club, and 94c for Extra Club. There was a tolerably good inquiry for flour, but at rather lower prices for medium qualities. Some 1,800 bbls were sold at $3,25 for superfine, and $4,50@5,00 for fair country to choice city Extra. The advancing tendency of freights tends to depress the market. Another advance of 10c is announced by the Lake Transportation lines, making the rate to New York $1,30, and to Boston $1,40. The Detroit & Milwaukee Railway is still contracting, however, at 10c below these rates, by Lake Erie from Detroit, and at 65c ₱ cwt for fourth class freight to New York, and 75c to Boston.

Grain freights were not materially changed, but a decline is very confidently looked for within the present week. The prop. Iowa, schrs. Ketchum, Cape Horn, Bonnie Doon and brig Bay City were chartered to load for Buffalo at 9½c; the sch. Curtis Mann at 10c, and the Flite Richmond for Oswego at 9½c.

CHICAGO MARKET, OCTOBER 15.

The receipts at Chicago yesterday included: 4,664 bbls flour; 151,751 bus wheat; 2,528 bus oats; 2,027 do rye; 2,389 bus barley. In reference to the market, the Press & Tribune says:

The wheat market to-day, owing to an advance of 2@3c in freights, opened dull and heavy, and prices ruled 2c lower. About 150,000 bus were sold, at 92c for Extra Club; 90c for Northwestern Club; 87@88c for No. 1 Spring; 84@85c for No. 2 do; and 75@78½c for Rejected Spring. The market at the close was very quiet, on account of the buoyancy in freights, and shippers were holding off. The flour market was quiet, and prices were a shade lower. About 1,000 bbls were sold at $4,55@4,75 for good to choice spring extras, and $4 for good superfine. Corn was neglected, and the sales small at 85½c for No. 2 Canal afloat, and 86@87c for No. 2 and No. 1 in store. Oats were in better request and firmer. About 85,000 bus were sold at 19¼c for No. 1 afloat, and 19@19½c in store. Rye declined 2@3c—about 9,000 bus being sold at 58c in store. Barley quiet and unchanged. Timothy Seed was in active demand, but prices firm. Highwines were in better request and a shade firmer—sales ranging from 15½@19c in round lots.

Freights ran up 2@3c ₱ bus. Three propellers and three sail vessels are engaged to load at Milwaukee with wheat for Buffalo at 20, and four sail vessels from this port at 19c. Besides these, one sail vessel was engaged at 24c for wheat to Oswego, via Collingwood, at 20c; one propeller to Kingston at 25 c; and a sail vessel to Port Sarnia at 12c. Shippers at the close were freely expressing their determination to hold off till rates were more moderate.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

At Baltimore on Saturday, flour was steady, with sales of 2,000 bbls at $5,75 for superfine, and $6,00 for extra. Coffee firm and active, with sales of 1,800 bags Rio at 1,3@ bags Rio at 13¼@15. Stock 2,000 bags. Sugars active and firm; sales 262 hhds at 7@8¾. In provisions there were sales of 150 bbls mess pork at $19,25@19,50; 25,000 lbs bulk sides at 10¾; 60 hhds bacon at 9¾ for shoulders and 11¾@11¾ for sides. Lard steady at 10@10¾. Sales 200 bbls whiskey at 22c.

CINCINNATI MARKET.

The Cincinnati flour market was strengthened by the intelligence of the advance at New York on Saturday, but the Gazette says there was no disposition to take hold at an advance. After the news holders asked an advance of 2c for wheat, but buyers did not accede to the demand. Corn was dull at 40@43c for old, and 30@33c for new. Oats dull at 29@30c. Whiskey dull at 18¾c.

The provision market exhibited no new feature. Bacon sold at 8¾@8¾ and 9c for shoulders, chiefly the latter figure; 11¾ for rib sides and 13¾ for clear do; mess pork $17,75@18; butchers' lard 10¾c, pkgs returned. Hogs firm, with a demand about equal to the offerings, at $6,50 for December, and $6,75 for November. Packer for the English markets were the principal buyers. Their advices from the other side are regarded as favorable. No change in Groceries.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

PROPELLER MAYFLOWER, Lake Michigan, October 16th, 1860.

We, the passengers on board the Mayflower, having assembled ourselves together, do resolve that in consideration of the kindness of Capt. LANGLEY and his gentlemanly mates, on our passage from Buffalo to Chicago, take this mode of expressing our appreciation of his kindness; and hope that if it is our lot to travel upon the lakes again, that we may be so fortunate as to secure a passage on board the steamer commanded by him.

Resolved, That a copy of the above be published in the Milwaukee Sentinel and Chicago Times.
